Visitors of all ages are welcome to help us kick-off the 2023 season! Historical interpreters will bring the Village to life through trades and crafts. Engage with living history interpreters depicting a British occupation from the Revolutionary War. Stop in the General Store for local treats and treasures. Bring your own blanket or chair to cheer on the Liberty Base Ball team as they start the season. Enjoy crafts and hands-on learning that the whole family can enjoy. Check out the newly opened Micah Williams: Portrait Artist Exhibit at the Cornelius Low House.

East Jersey Old Town Village and the Cornelius Low House are free and open to the public year-round, Wednesday through Sunday with living history interpreters onsite April through October and a packed schedule of special events.
