

A DAY TRIP FOR LOVEBIRDS

MORNING MEMORIES

Start your date in New Brunswick.

Waffles for Two?

Start your day of adventure with full bellies. Hidden Grounds Coffee has two locations in New Brunswick, each complete with unique beverages and breakfast delights. Plus, if you're here Monday – Friday, they serve up mouth-watering donuts.

If you're looking for vegan treats and good vibes, Veganized is the place for you! Their extensive menu is 100% vegan and 100% delicious.

AFTERNOON ADVENTURES

Keep the fun going with these afternoon activities.

Rutgers Gardens

Stop by Rutgers Gardens before leaving New Brunswick for a romantic stroll. Wind your way through the Bamboo Grove, find the perfect picnic spot in the Roy H. DeBoer Evergreen Garden, and explore the walking trails in Helyar Woods.

Fall Festival Fun

From u-pick apples and pumpkins to farm market goodies, Von Thun's Country Farm Market is the place to be all season long. Apple and pumpkin picking is open daily along with the corn maze. Plus, check the website for Fall Festival Plus Weekends - enjoy unlimited hayrides and compete in 20+ activities like pumpkin bowling, barnyard mini golf, the tractor pull and more.

EVENING EXCURSIONS

A perfect ending to the perfect date!

Get Cooking

Heirloom Kitchen offers unique cooking classes ranging from Jersey Shore Seafood to Greek delicacies – make sure to sign up ahead of time! They also offer an elegant and delicious four course prix fixe menu if you're just looking to relax with a nice meal before heading home.

Dinner Date

Cooking class not your thing? End your day trip with a romantic dinner date instead!

Stop by East Brunswick and try famous chef David Burke's restaurant, Orchard Park – a romantic and elevated date night must! Bonus tip: if you're visiting on Sunday, his brunch menu is enough reason to visit altogether!

If you're looking for a restaurant in New Brunswick, we recommend checking out the lush garden room at The Frog & The Peach for an upscale farm-to-table experience.
